IDEAL PARK FAVORITES FAIL.

The ring had a good day at Ideal Park yesterday, not a single first betting choice winning.

The hardest fall the public got was over the fourth race, a six furlong condition dash. Rondo was in with a feather on his back, and opening at even money was backed to 7 to 10 and less. It looked like one of those certainties on which any price was a gift. The colt's class gave the race this aspect, and the ring was kept busy handling Rondo money. The short price players bet on him as a certainty and when the field was detained at the post so long, they thought Rondo's chances all the better. They were a surprised lot when Jennie June got away in front and stepping the first half in 48 3/4 seconds, tiptoed her field and was so far in front that she could not be caught. Rondo, slow to get in motion, ran a creditable race and will do better next time.

The winner's sudden awakening was surprising, but close form observers profited by it. The filly was given an easy race her last out.

Close finishes came out of the second and fifth events.

The second was a four and a half furlong dash for maiden two-year-olds and George B was the natural 2 to 1 favorite. He ran a good race but through bad racing luck finished third. Mary Ann C, from Tully Coulter's stable, a well backed good thing, won by a narrow margin and in a driving and bumping finish from C H Whelan. The winner opened at fours, receded to tens and was then backed down to sixes. Clay rode her strongly at the end.

Miss Frances, Good Advice and Montepenso fought out the last race. The trio were head and head above the eighth pole and kept in sharp contention to the last stride, in which Miss Frances was lucky enough to be in the nod and won by the short nose's advantage it gave her. Montepenso was the best horse, but was badly messed about on the back stretch and weakly ridden at the end.

Character won the first race rather handily from a cheap field, and Sidkel, heavily played by his stable and cleverly handled by Clay, galloped over Bishop Poole's "good thing" Countess Irma in the third race.

FANTINE OR TARENTUM.

The Tarentum-Fantine case is not yet cleared up for historical purposes though her alleged owner Goodsell or Goodell and the filly are out of the business. If she was under a cloak the cloak escaped. If as alleged the cloak was Tarentum it was n't much of a cloak in a form way unless, as is said, Tarentum has greatly improved and won four races in four starts in Canada this season. It is certain that the Detroit crowd bet on Fantine for a ring and won about $25,000 by her victory. In the mob was George Richings. His presence here started the story. Richings deals in ringers. He was a fair jockey in his day, ruled off in the East for crooked riding. He has been ringing horses for some years. Every recent ringing fable is built around the Brannons—who at the best were less than expert. Richings had an original Brannon connection, but outgrew it. The Brannons were bad laborers in the past and are present bugaboos. Richings grew away from them, through modern culture. He is well-bred. His father was a railroad expert. But the boy was "out of line," got away from parental control early and for the last six years or so has been ringing horses for a living. He was "in" with the Polk Badget and Glee Boy coups, and organized a successful scheme or two at Hawthorne. He also "put through" five or six ringing plots in the East. Will Fonso, was his best recent tool. Richings has Canadian and Brooklyn connections. He was in Chicago the Sunday before and the Monday of the Fantine race and invited one close friend to share in the Ideal Park coup. The Richings method in that of horse duplication and the incident running of a bad horse for identification and a good duplicate for his own purpose. If the Richings gang had used Tarentum it would have taken a long chance. Tarentum, though, declared by the superficialists of the press to be a wonder and a "good thing" at 3 to 5, isn't "much." "Doc" Street owned her early. When the Jockey Club "landed" Street last year over a race by Galilee at St. Asaph it was a thorough "land." Jockey Club "lands" are of that kind. Subsequently Street's horses were released from the ban—if sold in a legitimate way. M. A. Coleman & Co., an Eastern firm, bought Tarentum. The filly ran eighteen races in 1895. She won five, was second three times, third four times, and unplaced six times. Her best wins were at 4 1/2 furlongs and at Windsor last fall. She won two 4 1/2 furlong races there in September. In one Sidkel was behind her. Both were in 55 seconds. The same days 1 1/16 miles was run in 1:47 1/2 and 1:48 and a mile by Sam Lewis in 1:42.

FIVE INGLESIDE FAVORITES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 3.—The horses ran true as steel according to public notion today, Sir Play being the only choice to fail on an improving track.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Byron McClelland will have J. Gardner in place of Perkins as his jockey in 1897.

Patrician, that fast horse which 'Gene Leigh bought this fall from Phil Dwyer, is at Ideal Park ready to race.

During the week the Fleischmanns purchased a couple of yearling in Lexington, one by Candlemas—Latonia, and the other by Strathmore—Trixie.

Macy, Meadowtherpe, Timemaker, Whisper and the others of the string of John W. Schorr, the Memphis brewer, have been shipped to their winter quarters.

Tom Griffin has purchased of S. Hughes, Clissie B, chestnut filly, 3, by Audrian, dam Gert-rude, by Rebel, on private terms. Hughes had only recently purchased the filly from Wm. Tarr.

Mr. Belmont, who has Griffin under contract for $16,000, will have no regular jockey next season. Dave Gideon intends to let Joe Hill go, and will not sign anybody in his place. The Brookdale Stable will release Lonnie Clayton and will not engage a jockey.

Winner—Blk. g. a. by Charaxus—Nina.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won handily at the end after a long and early drive; second, third and fourth driving hard. Character was the best. He was in pocket early part of race and taken wide on stretch turn. King Henry looked like a winner at head of stretch but weakened when the pinch came. Elsie Ferguson also hung in the closing drive. Proverb ran a good race and Robert on rode him well.

Scratched—Sligo, 104.

Overweights—Dave Sloan, 3 pounds.

Winner—B. f. by Prince Royal—Manzanita.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won in a long hard drive; next three doing their best. Clay simply outrode the other boys. There was a lot of bumping early in stretch. George B suffered most. He started through above eighth pole but got pinned in between Braxey and Mary Ann C. It cost him the race. C. H. Whelan also had bad racing luck. He was away poorly but was coming very fast at the finish. Braxey had quite a turn of speed but is a coward. Hall rode Snag badly. Felix V ran away a mile and a half before race. Mary Ann C was a well played "good thing." She was as high as 10 to 1 at some stages of the betting.

Scratched—Croesus, 100; Last Fellow, 105.

Overweights—Snag, 3 pounds; Olmedo, 5.

4819 THIRD RACE—1 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

4359	JACK BRADLEY	99	9	9	9	9	9	9	Craig	Oregon Stable	20	30	10

Winner—B. c. 3, by Siddartha—Lady Kelly.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third under punishment and all out. Clay stole a march on the field at first turn and opened up a big gap going down back stretch. Sidkel seemed to be tiring on far turn, but the others behind him were also leg weary and the Miles colt came on after a little shaking up in the stretch. Countess Irma is getting good. She was well played. Watch her, Devault had lots of speed but did not hold it. Ben Waddell ran a good race.

Scratched—Mandolina, 102; Little Dorritt, 102.

Overweights—Terra Archer, 4½ pounds.

4820 FOURTH RACE—3-4 Mile. Purse $300. All ages. Allowances.

Winner—B. m. 5, by Hyder Ali—Bagatelle.

Post 15 minutes. Start good. Won galloping; second and third driving. Jennie June acted badly at the post yet galloped all the way. Then she got off running. The race will do Rondo good. He was short on speed, and when boy saw he could not beat Jennie June, he was not urged. Jennie June's reversal was sudden. She ran a bad race her last out.

Scratched—Forum, 95; Ferryman II, 96; Little Eye, 96.

Overweights—Jennie June, 2½ pounds; Chappie, 4½; Rondo, 2.

4821 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. Purse $250. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Strathmore—Flower of Meath.

Post 1 minute. Start good. It was a very hard drive between the first three and an exceedingly close finish. Miss Frances was best ridden. She is a queer filly and young Dale understands her. Montepenso was the best horse. He was shut off three different times during the race and weakly ridden at the finish. Good Advice, a slow beginner, made his usual sensational rush on the end. Plutus also finished strong. Lulu T was short but had her speed. Watch her. His Brother is a counterfeiter. His ability is three-quarters; no farther.

Scratched—Vigars, 98.

Overweights—Lulu T, 3 pounds; Onalaska, 3; Plutus, 5.
